UNION OF SAFETY AND JUSTICE EMPLOYEES

Tell us about your telework arrangements

Help us understand how your workplace has adjusted to the new normal by completing our five-minute survey about the new Treasury Board Directive on return to worksite policies, and register for National Town Halls on February 15 and 16.

Have you been working fully remote, fully on-site, or somewhere in-between? How does the new Directive affect you? Your input will help us when we meet with your employer.

Celebrating Black labour leadership, creating better workplaces for all

Black History Month is an opportunity to reflect on and celebrate the contributions and accomplishments of Black leaders, workers, cultures and communities across Canada. Our labour movement has been shaped and fortified by the leadership of people of African and Caribbean descent, and we are proud to build and grow in solidarity together toward a more equitable future.
