RCMP DSAs deserve better: video

In March 2022, USJE released the report, The Mental Health and Well-being of Detachment Services Assistants in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police: A Qualitative Investigation, conducted by public safety expert Dr. Rosemary Ricciardelli. We spoke with DSAs across Canada and this is what they had to say about the report's recommendations.

Phoenix issues continue: More overpayment letters and filing claims

We are in the second year of the government's aggressive and heavy-handed plan to recover overpayments caused by Phoenix. Over the next few months, we expect more than 37,000 more current and former public service workers will receive an overpayment letter, asking for repayments for the year 2017.

National town halls on telework

Thank you to all the members who joined our two town halls on February 15 and 16 to share their experience with telework and ask questions about the return to worksite Directive.

Watch the recordings on our YouTube www.youtube.com/@usjesesj

USJE is urging members to file grievances regarding return to worksite policies within 25 working days.

Sign the CLC's Pledge to be a Gender Justice Champion at Work

This International Women's Day, we're celebrating the incredible wins delivered by Canada's labour movement to advance gender equity and women's rights at work. But the fight isn't over.
